Mid-Town completes volunteer service grant

Mid-Town extends its hearty congratulations to PP Rtn. Dr. Chandra Lekha Tuladhar and Rotaracts on the successful completion of FG - Volunteer Service Grant #67787.

Ms. Lisa Silberstein, RI, Grant Coordinator and Humanitarian Grants Program Staff, writes"

Thank you for submitting the final report regarding Volunteer Service Grant #67787, to help plan a water project in Kathmandu, Nepal. Your cooperation in fulfilling this requirement is greatly appreciated. As all required information has been included, the Foundation will mark the file as closed.

The photos show Eilen and John Heasley who came to Nepal and worked to help with the SBL water filters.

Greetings from Wellington New Zealand

Rotarian George Fairbairn who is visiting Kathmandu from Wellington New Zealand dropped in for a visit with RC Mid-Town. George is in Kathmandu for the first time to attend a function with the Scouts. He brings us greetings from RC Wellington – a club with an 87 year history with Rotary! Enjoy your visit and all good wishes from Mid-Town!

1st Charter Day of Inner Wheel Club of Butwal

A Dream of Inner Wheel Members of Butwal has Been Realized

Our own PP Rtn Dr Chandra Lekha Tuladhar (District Water Resource co-ordinator) was the Chief Guest at the 1st Charter Day celebration of the Inner Wheel Club of Butwal. All 25 members were on hand to celebrate their major achievement of building their own premises (on the 1st floor of the Rotary Building of RC Butwal). Thanks go to the untiring efforts of the committee of PP Bharati Joshi / IPP Samira Dhoju / PE Babita Shrestha / VP Saraswati Shrestha and that of the current President Omi Pun supported by other club members. The special event of 26th Feb was celebrated by appreciating their supporters and other activities addressing the needs of children and women.

Three Rotarians who were and still is the backbone for the ladies were recognised as "True Partners In Service," AG Dinesh Joshi, PP Nirmal Prasad Lacoul and Rtn Kundan Kakshapati.

All 25 members are active in conducting various social services in the community. On this occasion they were donated: of 10 Blood Bags worth Rs 3500 – a much needed container for collecting blood; for skill development of women : a sewing machine plus six other specialized machine for garment making worth Rs 35,000, for disadvantaged women: stationary and other supplies for education were handed over to Shradhha school an organization providing adult literacy. For Children: School uniforms and stationary were provided for 15 children of the poor and for 2 children of the poor: scholarship of Rs 1500 per student was handed over.

Dr Chandra Lekha writes to the dear sisters of the Inner Wheel Club of Butwal:

I "THANK YOU "from the bottom of my heart for your kind, generous and warm hospitality. My association and friendship with the Rotarians of Butwal dates back to 10 years I specially thank AG

Dinesh Joshi and others for maintaining that relationship now that I have come to know you I have 25 more sisters to make this relationship still stronger. I am proud of your achievements and respect your desire to provide more services to enhance the image of Rotary by turning still more dreams into reality. It will energize many others to know of the dedication of a handful of ladies of the Inner Wheel of Butwal .

*I am always there for you.
Yours in Rotary,
Dr Lekha*

Mid-Town Health Camp at Lele

On Saturday Feb. 28th Mid-Town conducted a Health Camp with a Dental Preventive Care Workshop by Rtn. Dr. Neil, Hypertension Monitoring by Rtn. Dr. Rabindra and Vision Screening by Rotaracts. PP Rtn. Girijee graciously donated pharmaceuticals. Everyone had a great time! The residents of Lele participated in good numbers.

A delicious "Ban Bhoj" was served after the camp – good fellowship was enjoyed by all.
